

About the Scout Uniform

Uniforming is one of the eight Methods used to accomplish the Scouting Aims of Character, Citizenship, & Fitness. The uniform makes the Scout troop visible as a force for good and creates a positive youth image in the community. The uniform gives the Scout identity in a world brotherhood of youth who believe in the same ideals. The uniform is practical attire for Scout activities, and provides a way for Scouts to wear the badges that show what they have accomplished.

The Boy Scout Uniform has long served as an expression of a Scout's friendliness to all other Scouts regardless of who they are or where they're from. The uniform represents Scouting's spirit of Equality and democracy, and identifies a boy as a brother to every other Scout. Wearing the uniform promotes comradeship, loyalty to one's patrol and troop, and public recognition of membership in the Boy Scouts of America.

Uniform inspections may be held periodically, using the Boy Scout Uniform Inspection Sheet to advise boys on the care and correct wearing of uniforms and insignia.

When To Wear The Uniform

Boy Scouts and Scout leaders proudly wear the full uniform for all ceremonial and indoor activities including troop meetings, Scoutmaster's Conferences, Boards of Review, and Courts of Honor. The uniform should also be worn during special outdoor occasions, such as flag ceremonies, Camporees, and special times during summer camp.

Troop 196 requires that Scouts wear the uniform shirt, neckerchief, scout belt, scout pants & scout socks to be considered "in uniform". Merit badge sashes or OA sashes should be worn on more formal occasions such as Courts of Honor.

During physically active outdoor events and informal activities, Scouts may wear an activity uniform -- Troop or camp T-shirts with Scout pants or shorts.

Neckerchief slide should be Scout appropriate of the Scout's choice.
